3. What Type of Transfer Are You Requesting?

Complete only one section: A, B, C or D.

Your delivering account statement is the best source of information about what type of transfer you should select.

Option A: Transfer from a Brokerage Firm or Trust Company – Look for the words "Broker/Dealer" or "Trust Company" on your statement.

Option B: Transfer from a Mutual Fund Company – Mutual funds held directly at a Mutual Fund Company often have their own account numbers.

Option C: Transfer from a Bank/Credit Union or Insurance Company/Annuity – Look for "checking," "savings," "CD" or "annuity" on your statement.

Option D: Transfer from a Transfer Agent (DRS) – The largest transfer agents are Computershare/BNY Mellon, American Stock Transfer & Trust, Equiniti Trust, Continental Stock Transfer & Trust, and Broadridge Corporate Issuer Solutions.

Some proprietary mutual funds and money market funds must be liquidated before the transfer can be completed. We'll contact you if this is necessary.

If you need more room to list assets in Option A or B, complete the Additional Assets page at the end of this form – sign and date the page.

Important information about the sale of fractional shares. The sale of fractional shares by a Transfer Agent could result in a taxable distribution to you. Under IRS regulations, rolling over the proceeds from the sale of fractional shares in an IRA into another IRA could prohibit the rollover of other IRA distributions for up to one year. Likewise, an IRA-to-IRA rollover made less than a year ago also could prohibit you from rolling over the sale proceeds. Talk to your own tax or legal professional about the tax consequences of IRA distributions – or any other brokerage transactions – and contact your Transfer Agent with questions regarding income tax withholding or information reporting.

4. Authorization for Transfer of a Qualified Retirement Plan Account

This section is required if you transfer your employer-sponsored qualified retirement plan's assets to an employer-sponsored qualified retirement plan (e.g., Money Purchase Pension Plan or Profit Sharing Plan) account at JPMS. Please have the plan trustee complete this section.

As trustee, by signing below, I authorize the transfer of the qualified retirement plan account to the J.P. Morgan Securities LLC investment account described in Section 1.

5. Account Holder Signature(s)

By signing below, I agree and understand that:

- I have read and am bound by JPMS' terms and conditions regarding the transfer of my assets from another financial institution. If the account is a retirement account, I certify that the retirement account is eligible to be transferred to the account I have with JPMS.
- JPMS does not accept and will not act as custodian of, and for, any assets that are not actually transferred to JPMS. JPMS specifically does not approve any notation on the books and records of any entity, including, but not limited to, any mutual fund company that indicates, implies and/or states that JPMS is the custodian of any assets held away from JPMS.
- JPMS may restrict the transfer of certain securities at its discretion.
- The following assets, the list of which is subject to change at any time, are not eligible for transfer into any JPMS accounts, including J.P. Morgan Self-Directed Investing and J.P. Morgan Automated Investing accounts: annuity contracts, futures, notional investments/memo positions (e.g., credit default swaps, TBA (to be announced) contracts, time deposits), life insurance and penny stocks. The following J.P. Morgan Self-Directed Investing and J.P. Morgan Automated Investing account assets, the list of which is subject to change at any time, are also not eligible for transfer: cash overdrafts, short security positions, physically held securities considered non-transferable (unpriced, no agent, invalid security identifier), alternative investments (includes any non-publicly traded stock or bond), legal documents/contracts, partnership shares, margin balances and structured notes.
- In the event that any ineligible assets are included in my transfer request to JPMS, I may not be able to liquidate such assets and/or JPMS may return such assets to me.
- For transfers into managed accounts, including J.P. Morgan Automated Investing accounts, I authorize and direct JPMS to sell or exchange these assets and rebalance the account, and I understand that this may generate taxable gains or losses. JPMS may not readily be able to sell certain securities transferred into the account, in which case JPMS reserves the right to hold those securities in the account and disregard the value of those securities in determining whether the account has met the initial and ongoing program minimum account balances.

TO DELIVERING FINANCIAL INSTITUTION: I understand that to the extent any assets in my account are not readily transferable, with or without penalties, such assets may not be transferred within the time frames required by FINRA Rule 11870 or other designated examining authority. Unless otherwise indicated in Section 2 of this form, I authorize you to liquidate any nontransferable proprietary or nonproprietary money market fund assets that are part of my account and transfer the resulting credit balance to JPMS. I understand that if I choose a method of disposition of such assets other than liquidation and transfer, I may become liable for payment of taxes and penalties with respect to such assets. I also understand that I will be notified in writing by the delivering financial institution and/or by JPMS with respect to the disposition of any other assets in my account that are nontransferable. I authorize you to deduct any outstanding fees due you from the credit balance in my/our account. If my account does not contain a credit balance, or if the credit balance in the account is insufficient to satisfy any outstanding fees due you, I authorize you to liquidate the assets in my account to the extent necessary to satisfy any outstanding fees due you. If certificates or other instruments in my account are in your physical possession, I instruct you to transfer them in good deliverable form, including affixing any necessary tax waivers, to enable JPMS to transfer them in its name for the purpose of sale, when and as directed by me. Upon receiving a copy of this transfer instruction, the delivering financial institution will cancel all open orders for my/our account on its books. I affirm that I have destroyed or returned to you credit/debit cards and/or unused checks issued to me, if any, in connection with the account I have designated for transfer.
