Your Guide to Benefits describes the benefit that is in effect as of 07/23/2014. Information in this guide takes the place of any prior benefit and benefit description you may have previously received. Your effective date of eligibility is determined by Chase.

Please keep the guide with your account information for future reference and call the Benefit Administrator if you have any questions before taking advantage of the benefit.

Auto Rental Collision Damage Waiver (Auto Rental CDW)

Benefit Information

What is Auto Rental CDW?

The Auto Rental CDW benefit provides reimbursement for damage due to collision or theft up to the actual cash value of most rental vehicles. It is primary coverage which means you do not have to file a claim with any other source of insurance before you can receive coverage under this benefit.

What steps do I need to take to ensure that Auto Rental CDW is in effect when I rent a vehicle?

Here's what you need to do:

1. Initiate and complete the entire rental transaction using your card that is eligible for the benefit.
2. Decline the rental company's collision damage waiver or similar provision if it is offered to you. The company may refer to the collision damage waiver as CDW or LDW in their contract or when speaking with you. If you accept the collision damage waiver offered by the rental company, you will not be eligible for Auto Rental CDW.

What if the auto rental company insists that I purchase its car insurance or collision damage waiver?

Call the Benefit Administrator for help.

Is there anything else I should do when I'm renting a vehicle?

It's always good practice to review the rental agreement and become familiar with its terms and conditions. Also, make sure you decline the rental company's CDW/LDW option as mentioned above.

Check the vehicle for prior damage before leaving the rental lot. If you notice damage, report it to your rental agent before leaving the lot.

Coverage Information

Who is eligible for coverage?

You, a person to whom a United States (U.S.) credit card has been issued ("Cardholder") and your name is embossed on the card. You are then covered as the primary renter of the vehicle and any additional drivers permitted to operate it under the terms of the rental agreement ("Authorized Person") are also covered.

When and where am I covered?

The benefit is available in the United States and most foreign countries. Coverage is not available where it is prohibited by law or by individual merchants, or is in violation of the territory terms of the rental agreement. Please note: Regulations vary outside the United States, so we recommend that you check with your auto rental company and Benefit Administrator before you travel to make sure your Auto Rental CDW will apply.

This benefit is in effect while the rental vehicle remains in your control or in the control of another Authorized Person. Coverage ends when the rental company reassumes control of the vehicle.

What is covered?

Auto Rental CDW reimburses you for covered losses to the rental vehicle while it is in your control or in control of another Authorized Person. The benefit only covers vehicle rental periods that do not exceed or are not intended to exceed thirty-one (31) consecutive days within or outside of your country of residence.

Covered losses are:

- Physical damage and/or theft of the covered rental vehicle
- Valid loss-of-use charges assessed by the rental company while the damaged vehicle is being repaired and is not available for use, as substantiated in the company's fleet utilization log
- Reasonable and customary towing charges related to a covered loss to take the vehicle to the nearest qualified repair facility.

Auto Rental CDW is primary coverage and provides reimbursement up to the actual cash value of the vehicle as it was originally manufactured. Most private passenger automobiles, minivans, and sport utility vehicles are eligible for coverage, but some restrictions may apply.

What types of rental vehicles are not covered?

Excluded worldwide are: expensive, exotic, and antique automobiles; certain vans; vehicles that have an open cargo bed; trucks; motorcycles, mopeds, and motorbikes; limousines; and recreational vehicles.

- Examples of excluded expensive or exotic automobiles are these brands: Aston Martin, Bentley, Bricklin, Daimler, DeLorean, Excalibur, Ferrari, Jensen, Lamborghini, Lotus, Maserati, Porsche, and Rolls Royce. However, selected models of BMW, Mercedes-Benz, Cadillac, and Lincoln are covered.
- An antique automobile is defined as any vehicle over twenty (20) years old or any vehicle that has not been manufactured for ten (10) years or more.
- This benefit is provided only for those vans manufactured and designed to transport a maximum of eight (8) people and which are used exclusively to transport people.

If you have any questions about a specific vehicle, please call the Benefit Administrator.

What else is not covered?

- Any obligation you assume under any other agreement
- Any violation of the auto rental agreement
- Confiscation by authorities
- Cost of any insurance or collision damage offered or purchased through the auto rental company
- Depreciation of the rental vehicle caused by loss or damage, which includes but is not limited to "diminished value" ("diminished value" is the monetary difference between a vehicle's pre-accident retail book value and its retail book value after reasonable repairs are made as the result of an accident)
- Expenses assumed, waived, or paid by the rental agency or its insurer
- Expenses reimbursed under your personal auto insurance policy, your employer or your employer's insurance
- Injury of anyone or anything inside or outside of the vehicle
- Items not installed by the original manufacturer

- Leases and mini leases
- Loss due to hostility of any kind (including but not limited to war, invasion, rebellion, or insurrection)
- Loss due to intentional acts or due to the driver(s) being under the influence of alcohol, intoxicants, or drugs, or due to transportation of contraband or engagement in illegal activities
- Loss due to off-road operation of the rental vehicle
- Loss or damage as a result of the Cardholder's lack of reasonable care in protecting the rental vehicle before or after damage occurs (for example, leaving the vehicle unattended and running)
- Loss or theft of personal belongings
- Losses for which a claim form has not been received within one hundred (100) days[†] from the date of the loss
- Losses for which all required documentation has not been received within three hundred and sixty-five (365) days from the date of loss
- Losses reported more than sixty (60) days[†] from the date of loss
- Personal liability
- Rental periods that exceed or are intended to exceed thirty-one (31) consecutive days within your country of residence or thirty-one (31) consecutive days outside your country of residence.
- Vehicles that do not meet the definitions of covered vehicles
- Wear and tear, gradual deterioration, or mechanical breakdown

Claim Information

What do I do if I have an accident or the rental vehicle is stolen?

Call the Benefit Administrator immediately to report theft or damage, regardless of whether your liability has been established. The Benefit Administrator will answer any questions you or the rental agency may have and will then send you a claim form.

Is there a time period during which I must report any incident?

It's important to report all incidents as soon as possible following the incident. You must report the incident no later than sixty (60) days[†] following the date of the theft or damage. We reserve the right to deny any claim containing charges that the Benefit Administrator would not have included had it been notified of those expenses before they were incurred. It's important that you notify us as soon as possible after any loss. You must make every reasonable effort to protect the rental vehicle from damage or theft.

How do I file a claim?

Please remember that you, the Cardholder, are responsible for reporting your claim to the Benefit Administrator within sixty (60) days[†] of the date of theft or damage. If the claim is reported after this time frame, your claim may be denied. Please note that reporting the claim to another party will not fulfill your responsibility to report it to the Benefit Administrator.

What documentation do I need to provide to the Benefit Administrator?

- The completed and signed Auto Rental Collision Damage Waiver Claim Form: Your completed claim form must be postmarked within one hundred (100) days[†] of the date of theft or damage, even if all other required documentation is not yet available. If your claim form is not postmarked within this time frame, your claim may be denied.
- A copy of your receipt or monthly billing statement showing that the entire vehicle rental was charged to and paid for with your eligible card

Also, enclose all the documents you received from the car rental company. You should ask the rental company for these documents immediately at the time of the theft or damage or when you return the vehicle to the company:

- A copy of the Accident Report Form and claim document: this should indicate the costs you are responsible for and any amounts that have been paid toward the claim.
- A copy of the entire auto rental agreement(s)
- A copy of the repair estimate or itemized repair bill
- Two (2) photographs of the damaged vehicle, if available
- A police report, if obtainable
- Any other documentation deemed necessary, in the Benefit Administrator's sole discretion, to substantiate the claim

If you experience difficulty in obtaining all the required documents within one hundred (100) days[†] of the date of theft or damage, just submit the claim form and any documentation you have available. Note: All remaining documents not submitted with the claim form must be postmarked within three hundred and sixty-five (365) days of the date of theft or damage.

Do I have to do anything else?

Usually, there is nothing else you need to do. Generally, the claim will be paid within fifteen (15) days after the Auto Rental CDW Benefit Administrator has received all documentation needed to fully substantiate your claim. After the Benefit Administrator has paid your claim, all of your rights and remedies against any party regarding the theft or damage to the vehicle will be transferred to the Benefit Administrator to the extent of the cost of payment made to you. You must give the Benefit Administrator all assistance as may reasonably be required to secure these rights and remedies.

[†] Not applicable to residents of certain states.

Additional Provisions for Auto Rental CDW: You must make every effort that would be made by a reasonable and prudent person to protect the Rental Vehicle from damage or theft. This provision will not be applied unreasonably to avoid claims.

If you make any claim knowing it to be false or fraudulent in any respect—including, but not limited to, the cost of repair services—you will not be covered for the claim and your benefits may be canceled. You and any other Authorized Person permitted to operate the vehicle under the terms of your rental agreement agree that all representations regarding claims will be accurate and complete. Any and all relevant provisions shall be void in any case of fraud, intentional concealment, or misrepresentation of material fact.

Once you report an occurrence, a claim file will be opened and it will remain open for six (6) months from the date of the damage or theft. No payment will be made on a claim that is not completely substantiated in the manner required by the Benefits Administrator within twelve (12) months of the date of damage or theft.

No legal action for a claim may be brought against the Provider until sixty (60) days after the Provider receives proof of loss. After the expiration of three (3) years from the time written proof of loss was to be provided, no action shall be brought to recover on this coverage. Further, no legal action may be brought against the Provider unless all of the terms in this Guide to Benefits have been complied with fully.

This benefit is provided to you as an eligible Cardholder at no additional cost. The terms and conditions contained in this Guide to Benefits may be modified by subsequent endorsements. Modifications to these terms and conditions may be provided via additional Guide to Benefits mailings, statement inserts, statement messages, or email or other secure portal messaging vehicles. The benefits described in this Guide will not apply to Cardholders whose accounts have been suspended or canceled.

Termination dates may vary by financial institutions. Chase can cancel or non-renew the benefit for Cardholders, and if they do, they will notify you at least thirty (30) days in advance.

This information is a description of the benefit provided to you as an eligible Cardholder. Indemnity Insurance Company of North America ("Provider") is the underwriter of this insurance policy and is solely responsible for its administration and claims. The Benefit Administrator provides services on behalf of the Provider.

Purchase Protection

Benefit Information

What is Purchase Protection?

- Purchase Protection covers eligible items of personal property you purchase using your Account in the event of theft, damage or involuntary and accidental parting with property.*
- If you buy an eligible item in the United States using your Account or rewards points earned on your Account and experience theft, damage, or involuntary and accidental parting with property within one hundred and twenty (120) days from the date of your purchase, Purchase Protection will replace, repair, or reimburse you up to a maximum of five hundred ($500) dollars for each claim and up to fifty thousand ($50,000) dollars for each Account. The decision to replace, repair, or reimburse you will be made at the Benefit Administrator's discretion.
- To be eligible for coverage, you must charge some portion of the price of the purchased item to your Account. You will only be reimbursed up to the dollar amount to replace or repair the item or the program limit, whichever is less.
- Purchase Protection provides coverage in excess of any valid and collectible insurance or indemnity. This includes but is not limited to homeowner, rental, automobile, and employer insurance policies.

Coverage Information

Who is eligible for coverage?

You, a person to whom a United States (U.S.) credit card has been issued ("Cardholder") and to whomever receives gifts purchased with your Chase credit card account ("Account").

What is covered?

- Certain personal items are covered when you purchase them using your Account or rewards points earned on your Account. The conditions for coverage are theft, damage, or involuntary and accidental parting with property. Involuntary and accidental parting with property means the unintended separation from an item of personal property in which the item's location is known but recovery is impractical to complete.
- Items purchased outside of the U.S. are covered as long as they are purchased with your Account and the purchase meets the terms and conditions of Purchase Protection.
- Gifts are covered as long as they are purchased with your Account and the purchase meets the terms and conditions of Purchase Protection.

What is not covered?

- Animals and living plants
- Antiques and collectible items
- Boats, aircraft, automobiles, and any other motorized vehicles and their motors, equipment or accessories, including trailers and other items that can be towed by or attached to any motorized vehicle
- Computer software
- Items purchased for resale, professional, or commercial use
- Items that mysteriously disappear. "Mysterious disappearance" means the vanishing of an item in an unexplained manner when there is an absence of evidence of a wrongful act by a person or persons
- Items under the care and control of a common carrier (including U.S. Postal Service, airplanes, or delivery service)
- Items including but not limited to, jewelry and watches from your baggage unless it is hand-carried and under your personal supervision, or under the supervision of your traveling companion who is previously known to you
- Losses resulting from abuse, fraud, hostilities of any kind (including, but not limited to, war, invasion, rebellion, insurrection, or terrorist activities), confiscation by the authorities, risks of contraband, illegal activities, normal wear and tear, flood, earthquake, radioactive contamination, or damage from inherent product defects
- Losses resulting from misdelivery or voluntary parting with property
- Medical equipment
- Perishables, consumables, including but not limited to perfumes, cosmetics, and limited-life items such as rechargeable batteries
- Traveler's checks, cash, tickets, credit or debit cards, and any other negotiable instruments
- Used or pre-owned items

Claim Information

How do I file a claim?

1. Call the Benefit Administrator within ninety (90) days after the loss, damage, or theft. The customer service representative will ask you for some preliminary claim information and send you the appropriate claim form. Please note: If you do not contact the Benefit Administrator within ninety (90) days of the loss, your claim may be denied.
2. Complete the claim form you receive from the Benefit Administrator. Be sure to provide all of the information requested and return the information within one hundred and twenty (120) days from the date of loss, theft, or damage.

Gift recipients of eligible items are also covered by the claims process. However, a gift recipient must provide all the documents necessary to fully substantiate the claim.

What documents do I need to submit with my claim?

- Your completed and signed claim form
- A copy of your card receipt
- A copy of the itemized store receipt
- If more than one method of payment was used, documentation linking the purchase back to the Account must be included
- A copy of the police report (made within forty-eight [48] hours of the occurrence in the case of theft), fire report, insurance claim, loss report or other report sufficient to determine your eligibility for Purchase Protection
- A copy of your insurance declaration page, when applicable
- Documentation (if available) of any other settlement of the loss
- Any other documentation deemed necessary, in the Benefit Administrator's sole discretion, to substantiate the claim

If the claim is for a damaged item:

Please be sure to retain the damaged item. To substantiate your claim, you will most likely be asked to send the damaged item to the Benefit Administrator at your expense.

Please note that all claims must be fully substantiated as to the time, place, cause, and amount of damage or theft.

How will I be reimbursed?

At its discretion and depending on the nature and circumstances of the incident, the Benefit Administrator may choose to address your claim in one of two ways:

1. A damaged item may be repaired, rebuilt, or replaced wholly or in part. A stolen item may be replaced. You will be notified of the decision to repair, rebuild, or replace your item within fifteen (15) days following receipt of the required proof-of-theft/damage documentation.
2. You may be reimbursed for the covered item. The reimbursement will be for no more than the original purchase price of the covered item as shown on your Account receipt, less shipping and handling charges, up to a maximum of five hundred ($500) dollars per claim and fifty thousand ($50,000) dollars per Account.*

You will only be reimbursed up to the amount charged to your Account or the program limit whichever is less. Additionally, any purchases made using rewards points associated with the Account are eligible for this benefit and you will only be reimbursed up to the dollar amount to replace or repair the item or the program limit, whichever is less.

Under normal circumstances, reimbursement will take place within five (5) business days of receipt and approval of all required documents.

In either case, the Benefit Administrator's payment, replacement, or repair made in good faith will fulfill the obligation under the benefit.

Do I have to file a claim with my insurance company?

Yes. If you have personal (i.e. homeowner's, renter's, or automobile) insurance, you are required to file a claim with your insurance company and to submit a copy of any claims settlement from your insurance company along with your claim form.*

At the discretion of the Benefit Administrator, a copy of your personal declaration page may be sufficient when the claim amount is within your personal insurance deductible.

* Note: Purchase Protection provides coverage on an "excess" coverage basis. That means it does not duplicate, but pays in excess of, valid and collectible insurance or indemnity (including, but not limited to, homeowner, renter, automobile, or employer insurance policies). After all insurance or indemnity has been exhausted, Purchase Protection will cover the loss up to the amount charged to your Account, and subject to the terms, exclusions, and limits of liability of the benefit. Purchase Protection will also pay for the outstanding deductible portion of your insurance or indemnity for eligible claims. The maximum limit of liability is five hundred ($500) dollars per claim occurrence, and fifty thousand ($50,000) dollars per Account. You will receive no more than the purchase price as recorded. Where a protected item is part of a pair or set, you will receive no more than the value (as described herein) of the particular part or parts, stolen or damaged, regardless of any special value that the item may have as part of such a pair or set, nor more than the proportionate part of an aggregate purchase price of such pair or set. Purchase Protection is not "contributing" insurance, and this "non-contribution" provision shall take precedence over "non-contribution" provisions found in insurance or indemnity descriptions, policies, or contracts.

Additional Provisions for Purchase Protection: This protection provides benefits only to you, the eligible Cardholder, and to whomever receives the eligible gifts you purchase with your Account.

You shall use due diligence and do all things reasonable to avoid or diminish any loss or damage to property protected by this benefit. This provision will not be unreasonably applied to avoid claims.

If you make any claim knowing it to be false or fraudulent in any respect including, but not limited to, the cost of repair services, no coverage shall exist for such claim and your benefits may be canceled. Each Cardholder agrees that any representations regarding claims will be accurate and complete. Any and all relevant provisions shall be void in any case of fraud, intentional concealment, or misrepresentation of material fact by the Cardholder.

Once you report an occurrence, a claim file will be opened and shall remain open for six (6) months from the date of the damage or theft. No payment will be made on a claim that is not completely substantiated in the manner required by the Benefit Administrator within six (6) months of the date of damage or theft.

After the Benefit Administrator has paid your claim of loss or damage, all your rights and remedies against any party in respect of this loss or damage will be transferred to the Benefit Administrator to the extent of the payment made to you. You must give the Benefit Administrator all assistance as may reasonably be required to secure all rights and remedies.

No legal action for a claim may be brought against the Provider until sixty (60) days after the Provider receives proof of loss. No legal action against the Provider may be brought more than two (2) years after the time for giving proof of loss. Further, no legal action may be brought against the Provider unless all the terms of this Guide to Benefit have been complied with fully.

This benefit is provided to eligible Cardholders at no additional cost. The terms and conditions contained in this Guide to Benefit may be modified by subsequent endorsements. Modifications to the terms and conditions may be provided via additional Guide to Benefits mailings, statement inserts, statement messages, or email or other secure portal messaging vehicles. The benefit described in this Guide to Benefit will not apply to Cardholders whose Accounts have been suspended or canceled.

Termination dates may vary by financial institutions. Chase can cancel or non-renew the benefit for Cardholders, and if they do, they will notify you at least thirty (30) days in advance.

This information is a description of the benefit provided to you as an eligible Cardholder. Indemnity Insurance Company of North America ("Provider") is the underwriter of this insurance policy and is solely responsible for its administration and claims. The Benefit Administrator provides services on behalf of the Provider.

Extended Warranty Protection

Benefit Information

What is Extended Warranty Protection?

Extended Warranty Protection extends the time period of the original manufacturer's written U.S. repair warranty by one (1) additional year on eligible warranties of three (3) years or less, up to a maximum of ten thousand ($10,000.00) dollars per claim, and a fifty thousand ($50,000.00) dollars maximum per Account.

To be eligible for coverage, you must charge some portion of the item's purchase price to your Account or use reward points earned on your Account toward the purchase. This benefit is secondary to any service contract or Extended Warranty you have purchased or received.

Extended Warranty Protection's registration service

Although registration is not required for Extended Warranty Protection benefits, you are encouraged to consider registration to help you take full advantage of your warranties. When your warranties are registered, you have access to key information about your coverage with a single toll-free call to the Benefit Administrator. And if you send copies of your sales receipts and warranty information to the Benefit Administrator, it will be kept on file. Call the Benefit Administrator for information regarding the security of registering your purchases.

Coverage Information

Who is eligible for coverage?

You, a person to whom a United States (U.S.) credit card has been issued ("Cardholder"), and to whomever receives gifts purchased with your Chase credit card account ("Account").

What is covered?

- Eligible items with a valid original manufacturer-written U.S. repair warranty of three (3) years or less
- Gifts purchased with your Account and meet the terms and conditions of the benefit
- Items purchased outside the United States are covered as long as they are purchased with your Account and the eligible item has either a valid original manufacturer-written U.S. repair warranty of three (3) years or less, a store-purchased dealer warranty, or an assembler warranty.

What items are not covered?

- Boats, automobiles, aircraft, and any other motorized vehicles and their motors, equipment, or accessories, including trailers and other items that can be towed by or attached to any motorized vehicle
- Any costs other than those specifically covered under the terms of the original manufacturer-written U.S. repair warranty, as supplied by the original manufacturer, or other eligible warranty
- Items purchased for resale, professional, or commercial use
- Rented or leased items or items purchased on an installment plan and for which the entire purchase price was not paid in full at the time of the occurrence
- Computer software
- Medical equipment
- Used or pre-owned items

Claim Information

How do I file a claim?

- Call the Benefit Administrator as soon as possible upon learning of a product failure. Please note that if you do not notify the Benefit Administrator within ninety (90) days after the product failure, your claim may be denied.
- The Benefit Administrator will ask you for some preliminary claim information, direct you to the appropriate repair facility, and send you the appropriate claim form.
- To file a claim, you need to provide copies of your card receipt, store receipt, the original manufacturer-written U.S. warranty, and any other applicable warranty unless the purchase is registered. This claim form must be completed, signed, and returned with all the requested documentation within one hundred and twenty (120) days of the product failure. Unless otherwise noted, the date of loss shall be the date you first notified the Benefit Administrator.

Gift recipients of eligible items are also covered by the claims process, if desired. However, a gift recipient must provide all the documents necessary to fully substantiate the claim.

What documents do I need to submit with my claim?

- Your completed and signed claim form
- A copy of your card receipt
- The itemized store receipt (if more than one method of payment was used, documentation linking the purchase back to the Account must be included)
- A copy of the original manufacturer - written U.S. warranty and any other applicable warranty
- A description and serial number of the item, and any other documentation deemed necessary to substantiate your claim. This includes bills and, if necessary, a copy of the maintenance record and receipts
- The original repair order

Please note that all claims must be fully substantiated.

How will I be reimbursed?

- Once your claim has been verified, the item will be repaired or replaced at the Benefit Administrator's discretion. The replacement or repair will be for no more than the original purchase price of the covered item less shipping and handling fees, up to a maximum of ten thousand ($10,000.00) dollars, as recorded on your card receipt, and fifty thousand ($50,000.00) dollars maximum per Account.
- Extended Warranty Protection will pay the facility directly for repairs, if possible, or you may go to an authorized repair facility and file a claim for reimbursement. Only valid and reasonable repairs made at the manufacturer's authorized repair facility are covered. In either case, the Benefit Administrator's payment, replacement, or repair made in good faith will fulfill the obligation under the benefit.
- You will only be reimbursed up to the amount charged to your Account or the program limit, whichever is less. Additionally, any purchases made using rewards points associated with the Account are eligible for this benefit and you will only be reimbursed up to the dollar amount to replace or repair the item or the program limit, whichever is less.

Under normal circumstances, reimbursement will take place within five (5) business days of receipt and approval of all required documents.

Do I have to file with my insurance company?

No. However, if you have purchased or received a service contract or Extended Warranty, Extended Warranty Protection is secondary to that coverage.

Additional Provisions for Extended Warranty Protection: This protection provides benefits only to you, the eligible Cardholder, and to whoever receives the eligible gifts you purchase with your eligible card.

You shall use due diligence and do all things reasonable to avoid or diminish any loss or damage to property protected by this benefit. This provision will not be unreasonably applied to avoid claims.

If you make any claim knowing it to be false or fraudulent in any respect including, but not limited to, the cost of repair services, no coverage shall exist for such claim and your benefits may be canceled. Each Cardholder agrees that representations regarding claims will be accurate and complete. Any and all relevant provisions shall be void in any case of fraud, intentional concealment, or misrepresentation of material fact by the Cardholder.

Once you report an occurrence, a claim file will be opened and shall remain open for six (6) months from the date of the damage or theft. No payment will be made on a claim that is not completely substantiated in the manner required by the Benefit Administrator within six (6) months of the date of product failure.

After the Benefit Administrator has paid your claim, all your rights and remedies against any party in respect of this claim will be transferred to the Benefit Administrator to the extent of the payment made to you. You must give the Benefit Administrator all assistance as may reasonably be required to secure all rights and remedies.

No legal action for a claim may be brought against the Provider until sixty (60) days after the Provider receives proof of loss. No legal action against the Provider may be brought more than two (2) years after the time for giving proof of loss. Further, no legal action may be brought against the Provider unless all the terms of the Guide to Benefit have been complied with fully.

This benefit is provided to eligible Cardholders at no additional cost. The terms and conditions contained in this Guide to Benefit may be modified by subsequent endorsements. Modifications to the terms and conditions may be provided via additional Guide to Benefit mailings, statement inserts, statement messages or email or other secure portal messaging vehicles. The benefit described in this Guide to Benefit will not apply to Cardholders whose Accounts have been suspended or canceled.

Termination dates may vary by financial institutions. Chase can cancel or non-renew the benefit for Cardholders, and if they do, they will notify you at least thirty (30) days in advance.

This information is a description of the benefit provided to you as an eligible Cardholder. Indemnity Insurance Company of North America ("Provider") is the underwriter of this insurance policy and is solely responsible for its administration and claims. Trip Cancellation and Trip Interruption

Benefit Information for Trip Cancellation

Who is covered?

You, the Primary Insured Person, and your Immediate Family Members are automatically covered. Immediate Family Member means your Spouse or Domestic Partner and their children, including adopted children or step-children; legal guardians or wards; siblings or siblings-in-law; parents or parents-in-law; grandparents or grandchildren; aunts or uncles; nieces or nephews.

What is Trip Cancellation insurance?

Trip Cancellation insurance reimburses you or your Immediate Family Members for up to ten thousand ($10,000.00) dollars for each Covered Trip if a Covered Loss prevents you or your Immediate Family Members from traveling on or before the departure date and results in cancellation of the travel arrangements.

If any or all of the Covered Trip was paid for using redeemable Rewards, the Company will reimburse the Insured Person for Rewards used. The Company's reimbursement shall equal the monetary value of the redemption through the Common Carrier, Tour Operator, Travel Agency, or Travel Supplier up to the Benefit Amount. If the monetary value of the redemption does not appear on the Insured Person's itinerary or redemption confirmation issued by the Common Carrier, Rewards program manager, Tour Operator, Travel Agency, or Travel Supplier the Company will reimburse the Insured Person ($01) per point redeemed up to the Insured Person's Benefit Amount.

Covered Trip means any pre-paid tour, trip or vacation when some portion of the cost for such travel arrangements less any redeemable frequent flyer miles, points, coupons or certificates, or other types of redeemable Rewards has been charged to your Account:

- while the insurance is in effect
- to a destination of greater than one (1) mile from your primary residence
- and is for a time period that doesn't exceed sixty (60) days in duration

Rewards means points, miles, cash Rewards, or any other type of redeemable Rewards, provided that all Rewards have been accumulated through use of a Rewards program sponsored by Chase Bank USA, N.A. and/or its affiliates.

Covered Loss means one of the following events that occur when you or an Immediate Family Member is insured under the policy and the event causes cancellation of the travel arrangements:

- Accidental Bodily Injury, Loss of Life, or Sickness experienced by you, a Traveling Companion, or an Immediate Family Member of you or a Traveling Companion
- Severe weather, which prevents a reasonable and prudent person from beginning or continuing on a Covered Trip
- Change in military orders for you, your Spouse, or your Domestic Partner
- A terrorist action or hijacking
- A call to jury duty or receiving a subpoena from the courts, neither of which can be postponed or waived
- Finding your or your Traveling Companion's dwelling to be uninhabitable
- Quarantine imposed by a Physician for health reasons
- Financial insolvency of the Travel Agency, Tour Operator, or Travel Supplier whose services you booked

If a trip cancellation occurs, the Company will reimburse you or an Immediate Family Member for the non-refundable amounts paid up to Trip Cancellation & Trip Interruption Maximum limit of Insurance per Occurrence of ten thousand ($10,000.00) dollars for each claim on a Covered Trip. Reimbursement is subject to the following:

- Cancellation provisions in effect at the time the Travel Supplier is notified of a cancellation.
- If a Physician has advised that making the Covered Trip is medically inadvisable, you must immediately notify the appropriate Travel Supplier that you are cancelling your travel arrangements. If you don't notify the supplier, the Company's reimbursement will not exceed the cancellation penalties imposed during the period by the supplier and in effect forty-eight (48) hours immediately following your receipt of advice from your Physician that travel is not advisable.

What is not covered by Trip Cancellation insurance?

It does not apply to a Covered Loss caused directly or indirectly from:

- travel arrangements canceled or changed by a Common Carrier, Tour Operator, or any Travel Agency unless the cancellation is the result of severe weather or an organized strike affecting public transportation
- change in plans, financial circumstances, and any business or contractual obligations applying to you, your Traveling Companion, your Immediate Family Member, an Immediate Family Member of your Traveling Companion
- a Pre-existing Condition

- Additionally, this insurance does not apply to any Accident, Accidental Bodily Injury or loss caused by or resulting from, directly or indirectly: the commission or attempted commission of any illegal act including but not limited to any felony
- any occurrence during incarceration
- being engaged in or participating in a motorized vehicular race or speed contest
- participating in any professional sporting activity for which a salary or prize money is received
- traveling or flying on any aircraft engaged in flight on a rocket propelled or rocket launched aircraft
- suicide, attempted suicide or intentionally self-inflicted injury
- when: a) the United States of America has imposed any trade or economic sanctions prohibiting insurance of any Accident, Accidental Bodily Injury or loss; or b) there is any other legal prohibition against providing insurance for any Accident, Accidental Bodily Injury or loss
- a declared or undeclared War

The Trip Cancellation benefit is excess over any travel insurance purchased by the Insured Person for the same Covered Trip or other indemnity by the airline, cruise line, railroad, station authority, occupancy provider available to the Insured Person.

Benefit Information for Trip Interruption

Who is covered?

You, the Primary Insured Person, and your Immediate Family Members are automatically covered. Immediate Family Member, means your Spouse or Domestic Partner and their children, including adopted children or step-children; legal guardians or wards; siblings or siblings-in-law; parents or parents-in-law; grandparents or grandchildren; aunts or uncles; nieces or nephews.

What is the Trip Interruption insurance?

Trip Interruption insurance reimburses you or your Immediate Family Members for up to ten thousand ($10,000.00) dollars for each Covered Trip if a Covered Loss causes interruption of the Covered Trip on the way to the point of departure or after the departure of the Covered Trip.

Covered Trip means any pre-paid tour, trip or vacation when some portion of the cost for such travel arrangements less any redeemable frequent flyer miles, points, coupons or certificates, or other types of redeemable Rewards has been charged to your Account:

- while the insurance is in effect
- to a destination of greater than one (1) mile from your primary residence
- and is for a time period that doesn't exceed sixty (60) days in duration

A Covered Loss is one of the following events that occur when you or an Immediate Family Member is covered under the policy while it is in effect:

- Accidental Bodily Injury, Loss of Life, or Sickness experienced by you, a Traveling Companion, or an Immediate Family Member of you or a Traveling Companion
- Severe weather, which prevents a reasonable and prudent person from beginning or continuing on a Covered Trip
- Change in military orders for you, your Spouse, or your Domestic Partner
- A terrorist action or hijacking

- A call to jury duty or receiving a subpoena from the courts, neither of which can be postponed or waived
- Finding your or your Traveling Companion's dwelling to be uninhabitable
- Quarantine imposed by a Physician for health reasons
- Financial insolvency of the Travel Agency, Tour Operator, or Travel Supplier whose services you booked

What types of Trip Interruption expenses are eligible for reimbursement?

If a Trip Interruption occurs, the Company will reimburse you for up to the maximum Benefit Amount of ten thousand ($10,000.00) dollars for:

- the forfeited, non-refundable pre-paid land, air and/or sea transportation arrangements that were missed

If you or an Immediate Family Member are forced to temporarily postpone a Covered Trip due to a Covered Loss and a new departure date is set, the Company will:

- reimburse for the unused Non-Refundable land, air and/or sea arrangements

However, in no event will the Company pay more than the Trip Interruption Benefit Amount for each interruption claim. Additionally, in no event will the Company pay more than the maximum Benefit Amount per twelve (12) month period.

What is not covered by Trip Interruption insurance?

This benefit does not apply to a Covered Loss caused directly or indirectly from the Insured Person or Traveling Companion:

- traveling against the advice of a Physician
- traveling while on a waiting list for specified medical treatment
- traveling for the purpose of obtaining medical treatment; or traveling in the third trimester (seventh month or after) of pregnancy
- traveling with a Pre-Existing Condition
- commission or attempted commission of any illegal act including but not limited to any felony
- being engaged in or participating in a motorized vehicular race or speed contest
- participating in any professional sporting activity for which the Insured Person received a salary or prize money
- traveling or flying on any aircraft engaged in flight on a rocket propelled or rocket launched aircraft
- suicide, attempted suicide or intentionally self-inflicted injury

Additionally, this insurance does not apply to any Accident, Accidental Bodily Injury or loss caused by or resulting from, directly or indirectly:

- 1) Common Carrier caused delays, unless they are as a result of an organized strike that affects public transportation;
- 2) travel arrangements canceled or changed by a Common Carrier, Tour Operator, or any travel agent unless the cancellation is the result of severe weather or an organized strike affecting public transportation;
- 3) change in plans, financial circumstances and any business or contractual obligations of the Insured Person, Traveling Companion, Immediate Family Member of the Insured Person or Immediate Family Member of the Traveling Companion;
- 4) any occurrence while the Insured Person is incarcerated;
- 5) when: a) the United States of America has imposed any trade or economic sanctions prohibiting insurance of any Accident, Accidental Bodily Injury or loss; or b) there is any other legal prohibition against providing insurance for any Accident, Accidental Bodily Injury or loss; or
- 6) a declared or undeclared War

The Trip Interruption benefit is excess over any travel insurance purchased by the Insured Person for the same Covered Trip or other indemnity by the airline, cruise line, railroad, station authority, occupancy provider available to the Insured Person.

What types of documentation may be requested when a claim is submitted?

Some of the documentation the Company may request includes, but is not limited to:

- completed claim form
- copy of the travel itinerary
- confirmation of the reason for the Trip Cancellation or Trip Interruption—i.e. medical documents, death certificate, or other documentation supporting a Covered Loss
- copy of the Credit Card statement that shows the charge for prepaid travel arrangements for Trip Cancellation
- proof of expenses incurred due to a Trip Interruption
- a copy of the cancellation or refund polices of the Common Carrier, Tour Operator, or Travel Supplier

How long do I have to file a claim after the event occurs?

You must provide a written claim notice within twenty (20) days after the occurrence or commencement of any Loss covered by this policy or as soon as reasonably possible. The notice must include enough information to identify you, and Chase Bank USA, N.A. and/or its affiliates. Please note that failure to provide a claim notice within twenty (20) days will not invalidate or reduce any otherwise valid claim if notice is given as soon as is reasonably possible.

What happens after I send a claim notice to you?

- Within fifteen (15) days of the Company's receipt of your claim notice, the Company will send you or your designee forms to complete that provides the Company with Proof of Loss.
- If you or your designee do not receive the forms, please send the Company a written description of the Loss. This written description should include information detailing the occurrence, type, and extent of the Loss for which the claim is made.

How long do I have to provide you with Proof of Loss?

You need to send the Company complete Proof of Loss within ninety (90) days from the date of loss or as soon as reasonably possible. Please note that failure to provide Proof of Loss within these time frames will not invalidate or reduce any otherwise valid claim if notice is given as soon as is reasonably possible, and in no event later than one (1) year after the ninety (90) day deadline to submit Proof of Loss, except in cases where the claimant lacks legal capacity.

How soon after I provide Proof of Loss will I receive payment for my claim?

You will receive payment for your claim for all losses covered under the plan within sixty (60) days after the Company receives the complete

Proof of Loss if you, Chase Bank USA, N.A. and/or its affiliates and beneficiary, where applicable, have complied with all the terms of the policy.

Will the benefits be payable to me?

Yes, Trip Cancellation and Trip Interruption benefits are payable to you.

General questions that apply to Trip Cancellation and Trip Interruption insurance

Do I need to notify anyone that I've booked travel arrangements to obtain this insurance?

No, it's not necessary for you to notify Chase Bank USA, N.A. and/or its affiliates, the administrator, or the Company when travel arrangements are purchased.

What types of prepaid travel arrangements are eligible for reimbursement?

Some of the prepaid travel arrangements that are eligible for reimbursement include, but are not limited to, airline tickets, train tickets, bus tickets, prepaid tours, hotels, and rental cars. You will need to relinquish to the Company any unused vouchers, tickets, coupons or travel privileges for which you have been reimbursed.

If I charge multiple travel arrangements for myself and Immediate Family Members, do the benefits apply to each person?

Yes, each traveler is eligible to receive the primary benefit up to the Trip Cancellation & Trip Interruption Maximum Limit of Insurance per Occurrence.

What is the Trip Cancellation & Trip Interruption Maximum Limit of Insurance per Occurrence?

If more than one person insured under the same Account suffers a Covered Loss for the same Covered Trip, the Company will not pay more than:

Benefit	Trip Cancellation & Trip Interruption Maximum Limit of Insurance Per Occurrence	Maximum Benefit Amount per Twelve (12) Month Period
Trip Cancellation	Twenty Thousand ($20,000.00) Dollars	Forty Thousand ($40,000.00) Dollars
Trip Interruption	Twenty Thousand ($20,000.00) Dollars	Forty Thousand ($40,000.00) Dollars

If a Covered Loss results in Benefit Amounts becoming payable, which when totaled, exceed the applicable Trip Cancellation & Trip Interruption Maximum Limit of Insurance per Occurrence, then the Trip Cancellation & Trip Interruption Maximum Limit of Insurance per Occurrence will be divided proportionally among the Insured Persons, based on each applicable Benefit Amount.

Are my Immediate Family Members covered if I am not traveling with them?

Yes. As long as you have charged the travel arrangements to your card, the Company will pay the corresponding benefit regardless of whether you are traveling with them, as subject to the terms and conditions of this description of coverage.

Price Protection

Benefit Information

What is Price Protection?

- Price Protection provides reimbursement for the difference in price on products you buy with your Account or by using rewards points earned on that Account.
- If you purchase an eligible item with your Account in the United States and see a Printed Advertisement at any retail store or Non-auction Internet Advertisement for less within ninety (90) days of the original purchase date, simply file a valid claim and the Benefit Administrator will reimburse you the difference up to five hundred ($500.00) dollars for each item. Price Protection is limited to twenty-five hundred ($2,500.00) dollars a year for each Account.
- Price Protection is limited to fifty ($50.00) dollars for each item and one hundred and fifty ($150.00) dollars a year for each Account for advertisements of cash only, close-out, liquidation and going-out-of-business sales.
- Price Protection is secondary to and in excess of store policies offering a lowest-price guarantee or any other form of refund for price differences, and any other valid and collectible avenue of recovery for which you are eligible.
- To be eligible for coverage, you must charge some portion of the item's purchase price to your Account or use rewards points earned on your Account toward the purchase. You will only be reimbursed up to the amount charged to your Account or the program limit.

What documentation should I obtain at the time of purchase so that I can file a claim if necessary?

- Use your Account to purchase the eligible item. Save all original receipts, paperwork related to your Account and an itemized store receipt.
- The Printed Advertisement or Non-Auction Internet Advertisement must include a description of an item identical to the one purchased, along with the sale price, the store or dealer's name, and the date(s) the sale is in effect. The sale date must be within ninety (90) days after the original purchase date.

Coverage Information

Who is eligible for coverage?

- For advertisements of cash only, close-out, liquidation and going-out-of-business sales, you will be reimbursed for the difference in price up to a maximum of fifty ($50.00) dollars for each item and one hundred and fifty ($150.00) dollars a year for each Account.
- If your documentation is not complete, the Benefit Administrator will request additional information, which must be supplied within sixty (60) days of the request.
- You will only be reimbursed up to the amount charged to your Account or the program limit, whichever is less. Additionally, any purchases made using rewards points associated with the Account are eligible for this benefit.

Definitions

Printed Advertisements – advertisements appearing in a newspaper, magazine, store circular, or catalog that state the authorized dealer or store name, item (including make and model number), and sale price distributed in the United States to the general public and placed by a manufacturer or authorized dealer of the consumer product in the United States. The advertisement must provide information stating the same manufacturer and model number of the item purchased. Any advertisement that is cut down or altered in any manner will not be sufficient documentation of loss. Therefore, any advertisements, catalogs, etc. must be submitted in whole with date verification. The only exception will be magazines and newspapers. In this case, you do not need to send the whole publication, but you will be required to send the whole page or pages in which the advertisement is found, with the date and name of the publication.

Non-Auction Internet Advertisements – advertisements posted on the Internet, by a non-Auction Internet merchant with a valid tax identification number. The advertisement must provide information stating the same manufacturer and model number of the item purchased. The printed version of the Non-Auction Internet advertisement must include the merchant’s Internet address and customer service telephone number, as well as the item, including manufacturer, model number, sale price, and date of publication.

Auction (online or live) – a place or Internet site where items are sold through bidding or price quotes; or where prices fluctuate based on the number of people interested in purchasing or attempting to purchase a product. (Examples include, but are not limited to, eBay, Ubid, Yahoo, and public or private live auctions.)

Date of Purchase – the date you paid for and received the item, or the date of delivery and personal acceptance of the item, whichever is later.

Additional Provisions for Price Protection: The Price Protection benefit is secondary to and excess of any valid and collectible avenue of recovery which is available to you, the eligible Cardholder. The Provider will reimburse the excess amount once all other coverage has been exhausted up to the limit of liability.

This benefit is available only to you, the eligible Cardholder. If you make any claim knowing it to be false or fraudulent, no coverage shall exist for such claim and your benefits may be canceled. Each Cardholder agrees that representations regarding claims will be accurate and complete. Any and all relevant provisions shall be void in any case of fraud, intentional concealment, or misrepresentation of material fact by the Cardholder.

Once you report a claim, a claim file will be opened and shall remain open for sixty (60) days from the date you reported the claim. No payment will be made on a claim that is not completely substantiated in the manner required by the Benefit Administrator within eighty-one (81) days of the date of the printed advertisement.

After the Benefit Administrator has paid your claim, all rights and remedies against any party in respect of this loss will be transferred to the Benefit Administrator to the extent of the cost of payment made to you. You must give the Benefit Administrator all assistance as may reasonably be required to secure all rights and remedies.

No legal action for a claim may be brought against the Provider until sixty (60) days after the Provider receives proof of loss. No legal action against the Provider may be brought more than two (2) years after the time for giving proof of loss. Further, no legal action may be brought against the Provider unless all the terms of this Guide to Benefits have been complied with fully.

This benefit is provided to eligible Cardholders at no additional cost. The terms and conditions contained in this Guide to Benefits may be modified by subsequent endorsements. Modifications to the terms and conditions may be provided via additional Guide to Benefits mailings, statement inserts, or statement messages, or email or other secure portal messaging vehicles. The benefit described in this Guide to Benefits will not apply to Cardholders whose Accounts have been suspended or canceled.

Termination dates may vary by financial institutions. Chase can cancel or non-renew the benefit for Cardholders, and if they do, they will notify you at least thirty (30) days in advance.

This information is a description of the benefit provided to you as a Cardholder. Indemnity Insurance Company of North America ("Provider") is the underwriter of this insurance policy and is solely responsible for its administration and claims. The Benefit Administrator provides services on behalf of the Provider.

What happens after I submit my claim?

- When your claim is received a customer service representative will contact you. If additional documentation is needed, in the Benefit Administrator's sole discretion, to substantiate the claim, you will have an additional sixty (60) days to provide that information.
- When the claim information is complete, the customer service representative will give you instructions for shipping the item with its original packaging, plus any manuals and warranties to the Benefit Administrator. The cost of shipping is at your expense. The Benefit Administrator must receive the item in like-new/good working condition before the claim can be approved.

How will I be reimbursed?

- Once your claim has been approved and the item is received, the Benefit Administrator will issue reimbursement for the purchase price of the item up to a maximum of five hundred ($500.00) dollars for each eligible item, one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars annual maximum for each Account less any applicable shipping and handling fees.
- Additionally, eligible purchases made using rewards points associated with the Account are eligible for this benefit.

Additional Provisions for Return Protection: The Return Protection benefit is secondary to and excess of any valid and collectible avenue of recovery which is available to you, the eligible Cardholder. The Benefit Administrator will reimburse the excess amount once all other coverage has been exhausted up to the limit of liability.

This benefit is available only to you, the eligible Cardholder. If you make any claim knowing it to be false or fraudulent in any respect, no coverage shall exist for such claim and your benefits may be canceled. Each Cardholder agrees that representations regarding claims will be accurate and complete. Any and all relevant provisions shall be void in any case of fraud, intentional concealment, or misrepresentations of material fact by the Cardholder.

After the Benefit Administrator has paid your claim, all rights and remedies against any party in respect of this loss will be transferred to the Benefit Administrator to the extent of the payment made to you. You must give the Benefit Administrator all assistance as may reasonably be required to secure all rights and remedies.

No legal action for a claim may be brought against the Provider until sixty (60) days after the Provider receives proof of loss. No legal action against the Provider may be brought more than two (2) years after the time for giving proof of loss. Further, no legal action may be brought against the Provider unless all the terms of this Guide to Benefits have been complied with fully.

This benefit is provided to eligible Cardholders at no additional cost. The terms and conditions contained in this Guide to Benefits may be modified by subsequent endorsements. Modifications to terms and conditions may be provided via additional Guide to Benefits mailings, statement inserts, or statement messages, or email or other secure portal messaging vehicles. The benefit described in this Guide to Benefits will not apply to Cardholders whose Accounts have been suspended or canceled.

Termination dates may vary by financial institutions. Chase can cancel or non-renew the benefit for Cardholders, and if they do, they will notify you at least thirty (30) days in advance.

This information is a description of the benefit provided to you as an eligible Cardholder. Indemnity Insurance Company of North America ("Provider") is the underwriter of this insurance policy and is solely responsible for its administration and claims. The Benefit Administrator provides services on behalf of the Provider.

Lost Luggage

Benefit Information

What is the Lost Luggage benefit?

- The benefit reimburses you for costs you incur to repair or replace Checked Baggage and/or Carry-On Baggage and personal property contained within due to physical loss or damage, if the loss (including theft) or damage occurs during a Common Carrier Covered Trip.
- The Company's liability will be the actual cash value (replacement cost less depreciation) of the articles at the time of loss up to the maximum benefit amount. The Lost Luggage benefit is in excess of any travel insurance purchased by the Insured Person for the same Covered Trip or indemnity or reimbursements by the airline, cruise line, railroad, station authority, occupancy provider available to you.
- The plan is automatically provided to you as a Cardholder and your Immediate Family Members at no cost to you. Chase Bank USA, N.A. and/or its affiliates pays the full cost of the insurance.
- To be eligible for this benefit, you must report the loss or damage to the Common Carrier immediately as soon as you exit the Carrier. You will need to provide proof that you submitted a report to the Common Carrier, so be sure to keep a copy of the report for your records.

What is a Common Carrier Covered Trip?

- It's travel on a Common Carrier (see definitions section) when some portion of the fare for transportation has been charged to your Account issued by Chase Bank USA, N.A. and/or its affiliates.
- It's also travel on a Common Carrier when free flights have been awarded from frequent flier or Rewards programs, provided that all of the miles or Rewards points were accumulated from a Rewards program sponsored by Chase Bank USA, N.A. and/or its affiliates.

Coverage Information

Who is covered?

You, the Primary Insured Person and your Immediate Family Members are covered. Immediate Family Members means your Spouse or Domestic Partner and their children, including adopted children or step-children; legal guardians or wards; siblings or siblings-in-law; parents or parents-in-law; grandparents or grandchildren; aunts or uncles; nieces or nephews.

If I charge multiple Common Carrier fares on my Account for myself and Immediate Family Members, does this benefit apply separately to each person?

Yes, each Insured Person is eligible to receive the benefit.

Are my Immediate Family Members covered if I am not traveling with them?

Yes. The Company will pay the corresponding benefit regardless of whether you are traveling with them, as long as you have charged some portion of a Common Carrier fare for the Immediate Family Members (minus any redeemable frequent flyer miles, points, coupons or certificates, or other types of redeemable Rewards) to your Account (subject to the terms and conditions of this description of coverage).

What is covered?

The benefit covers physical loss or damage of Checked Baggage and/or Carry-On Baggage and personal property in the baggage belonging to you or an Immediate Family Member. The benefit amounts are: up to three thousand ($3,000.00) dollars for each Insured Person (you and your Immediate Family Members) for each Common Carrier Covered Trip; up to five hundred ($500.00) dollars for each Insured Person for each Common Carrier Covered Trip for jewelry, watches, cameras, video recorders, and other electronic equipment.

The benefit amounts for jewelry, watches, cameras, video recorders, and other electronic equipment are part of and not in addition to the maximum benefit amount for Lost Luggage. Payment of these benefit amounts reduces and does not increase the maximum benefit amount for Lost Luggage.

What is not covered?

- loss of documents or valuable papers, money, securities, tickets, checks, traveler's checks or furs.
- any loss of property caused by or resulting from, directly or indirectly, you or an Immediate Family Member committing or attempting to commit any illegal act or international act, including but not limited to any felony.
- any loss of property occurring when 1) the United States of America has imposed any trade or economic sanctions prohibiting insurance of any loss of property; 2) there is any other legal prohibition against providing insurance for any loss of property; or 3) in the event of a declared or undeclared War.

When does my coverage become effective?

Your insurance becomes effective on the latest of the following:

- the date on which you first meet the eligibility criteria as an Insured Person
- the date for which the premium for your insurance is paid by Chase Bank USA, N.A. and/or its affiliates

Your Immediate Family Members, as Insured Persons, are also covered while the insurance is in effect for the benefits described in this description of coverage.

When does my coverage terminate?

Your insurance automatically terminates on the earliest of the following:

- the termination date of the policy
- the expiration of the period for which required premium has been paid for you
- the date on which you no longer meet the eligibility criteria as an Insured Person
- the date on which the Company pays out 100% of the benefit amount

Do I need to notify anyone that I've booked a Common Carrier fare to obtain this insurance?

No, it is not necessary for you to notify Chase Bank USA, N.A. and/or its affiliates, the administrator, or the Company when you purchase your tickets.

Claim Information

Specific questions and request for claims forms may be submitted to the Plan Administrator at the following address:

Plan Administrator
Card Benefit Services
P.O. Box 72034
Richmond, VA 23255

What types of documentation may be requested when a claim is submitted?

Some of the documentation the Company may request includes, but is not limited to:

- a completed claim form
- a copy of the travel itinerary
- written confirmation that the claim was filed with the Common Carrier
- a copy of the credit card statement that shows the charge for the Common Carrier fare
- a copy of the settlement or denial from the Common Carrier
- copies of receipts for the purchase of replacement items over twenty-five ($25.00) dollars
- copies of original receipts

How long do I have to file a claim after the damage or loss occurs?

You must provide a written claim notice within twenty (20) days after the occurrence or commencement of any loss or damage covered by this policy or as soon as reasonably possible. The notice must include enough information to identify you, and Chase Bank USA, N.A. and/or its affiliates. Please note that failure to provide a claim notice within twenty (20) days will not invalidate or reduce any otherwise valid claim if notice is given as soon as is reasonably possible.

What happens after I send a claim notice to you?

- Within fifteen (15) days of the Company's receipt of your claim notice, the Company will send you or your designee forms to complete that provides the Company with Proof of Loss.
- If you or your designee does not receive the forms, please send the Company a written description of the loss. This written description should include information detailing the occurrence, type, and extent of the loss for which the claim is made.

How long do I have to provide you with Proof of Loss?

You need to send the Company complete Proof of Loss within ninety (90) days from the date of loss or as soon as reasonably possible. Please note that failure to provide Proof of Loss within these time frames will not invalidate or reduce any otherwise valid claim if notice is given as soon as is reasonably possible, and in no event later than one (1) year after the ninety (90) day deadline to submit Proof of Loss, except in cases where the claimant lacks legal capacity.

How soon after I provide Proof of Loss will I receive payment for my claim?

You will receive payment for your claim for all losses covered under the plan within sixty (60) days after the Company receives the complete Proof of Loss if you, Chase Bank USA, N.A. and/or its affiliates and beneficiary, where applicable, have complied with all the terms of the policy.

Will the benefits be payable to me?

Yes, the benefits for lost luggage are payable to you.

Trip Delay Reimbursement

Benefit Information

What is Trip Delay Reimbursement?

Trip Delay Reimbursement covers up to a maximum of five hundred ($500.00) dollars for each purchased ticket for reasonable expenses, on a one-time-basis, incurred if your Covered Trip is delayed by a Covered Hazard for more than twelve (12) hours or requires an overnight stay. To be eligible for this coverage, you need to purchase either a portion or the entire cost of your Common Carrier fare using your Account. Coverage is in excess of any expenses paid by any other party, including applicable insurance.

Definitions

A Covered Trip is a period of round-trip travel that doesn't exceed three hundred and sixty-five (365) days away from your residence to a destination other than your city of residence.

A Covered Hazard includes equipment failure, inclement weather, labor strikes, and hijacking or skyjacking.

A Common Carrier is any land, water, or air conveyance that operates under a valid license to transport passengers for hire and requires purchasing a ticket before travel begins. It does not include taxis, limousine services, commuter rail or bus lines, or rental vehicles.

Coverage Information

Who is eligible for coverage?

You, a person to whom a United States (U.S.) credit card has been issued ("Cardholder"), your spouse, and your dependent children under twenty-two (22) years of age are automatically covered when a portion or the entire cost of the Common Carrier fare, is purchased with your Chase credit card account ("Account").

What is covered?

You are covered for reasonable additional expenses, including but not limited to meals, lodging, toiletries, medication and other personal use items that you encounter due to a Covered Hazard delay, as long as the services were not provided free of charge by the Common Carrier or any other party.

What is not covered?

You are not covered for any Covered Hazard delay that was made public or known to you prior to the departure for the Covered Trip. Also, prepaid expenses are not covered.

Claim Information

How do I file a claim?

You need to call the Benefit Administrator within sixty (60) days following the date of the delay. The Benefit Administrator will ask you for some preliminary claim information and send you a claim form.

The completed claim form and requested documentation must be returned within one hundred (100) days of the date of the trip delay to the Benefit Administrator:

Card Benefit Services
P.O. Box 72034
Richmond, VA 23255

Failure to do so could result in the denial of your claim.

What documents do I need to submit with my claim?

- Your completed and signed claim form
- Your Account receipt showing that the travel fare was charged to your eligible card. If more than one method of payment was used, include documentation that shows a portion of the purchase was made with your Account.
- A copy of the Common Carrier ticket
- A statement from the Common Carrier indicating the reasons that the Covered Trip was delayed
- Copies of receipts for the claimed expenses
- Any other documentation deemed necessary, in the Benefit Administrator's sole discretion, to substantiate the claim

Additional Provisions for Trip Delay Reimbursement: Trip Delay Reimbursement is supplemental to, and excess of any valid and collectible avenue or recovery which is available to you, the eligible Cardholder. The Benefit Administrator will reimburse the excess amount once all other coverage has been exhausted up to the limit of liability.

You shall do all things reasonable to avoid or diminish any loss covered by this benefit. This provision will not be unreasonably applied to avoid claims. If you make any claim knowing it to be false or fraudulent in any respect, no coverage shall exist for such claim and your benefits may be canceled. Each Cardholder agrees that representations regarding claims will be accurate and complete. Any and all relevant provisions shall be void in any case of fraud, intentional concealment, or misrepresentation of material fact by the Cardholder.

Once you report an occurrence, a claim file will be opened and shall remain open for one hundred (100) days from the date of the trip delay. No payment will be made on a claim that is not completely substantiated in the manner required by the Benefit Administrator within one hundred (100) days of the occurrence.

After the Benefit Administrator has paid your claim, all your rights and remedies against any party in respect of the claim will be transferred to the Benefit Administrator to the extent of the payment made to you. You must give the Benefit Administrator all assistance as may reasonably be required to secure all rights and remedies.

No legal action for a claim may be brought against the Provider until sixty (60) days after the Provider receives proof of loss. No legal action against the Provider may be brought more than two (2) years after the time for giving proof of loss. Further, no legal action may be brought against the Provider unless all of the terms of the Guide to Benefits and policy have been complied with fully.

This benefit is provided to eligible Cardholders at no additional cost. The terms and conditions contained in this Guide to Benefits may be modified by subsequent endorsements. Modifications to the terms and conditions may be provided via additional Guide to Benefits mailings, statement inserts, or statement messages, or email or other secure portal messaging vehicles. The benefit described in this Guide to Benefits will not apply to Cardholders whose Accounts have been suspended or canceled.

Termination dates may vary by financial institutions. Chase can cancel or non-renew the benefit for Cardholders, and if they do, they will notify you at least thirty (30) days in advance.

This information is a description of the benefit provided to you as an eligible Cardholder. Indemnity Insurance Company of North America ("Provider") is the underwriter of this insurance policy and is solely responsible for its administration and claims. The Benefit Administrator provides services on behalf of the Provider.

Federal Insurance Company, a member insurer of the Chubb Group of Insurance Companies, is the underwriter of this insurance policy and is solely responsible for its administration and claims.

Travel Accident Insurance

Benefit Information for Common Carrier Travel Accident Insurance

Who is covered?

This insurance is provided automatically to Cardholders and your Immediate Family Members. Immediate Family Member means Your or Your Spouse's or Domestic Partner's children, including adopted children or stepchildren; legal guardians or wards; siblings or siblings-in-law; parents or parents-in-law; grandparents or grandchildren; aunts or uncles; nieces or nephews.

What is the Common Carrier Travel Accident benefit and what is covered?

Common Carrier means any motorized land, water or air Conveyance, operated by an organization, structured and licensed for the transportation of passengers for hire and operated by an employee of such organization or an individual under contract.

If You charge some portion of a Common Carrier fare (less any redeemable frequent flyer miles, points, coupons or certificates, or other types of redeemable rewards) to Your Account (subject to the terms and conditions of this description of coverage), the Company will pay the benefit for a Covered Loss while an Insured Person is:

- 1) riding as a passenger in, entering or exiting any Common Carrier on which You have purchased passage; or
- 2) riding as a passenger in, entering or exiting any Conveyance licensed to carry the public for hire or any Courtesy Transportation provided without a specific charge and while traveling to or from the airport, terminal or station:
 - a) immediately preceding the departure of the scheduled Common Carrier on which You have purchased passage; or
 - b) immediately following the arrival of the scheduled Common Carrier on which the Insured Person was a passenger; or
- 3) at the airport, terminal or station at the beginning or end of the Common Carrier Covered Trip

Coverage shall also be provided when free flights have been awarded from frequent flier or rewards programs provided that all of the miles or rewards points were accumulated from a rewards program sponsored by Chase Bank USA, N.A. and/or its affiliates.

If the purchase of the Common Carrier passenger fare is not made prior to Your arrival at the airport, terminal or station, coverage will begin at the time some portion of the cost of the Common Carrier passenger fare is charged to Your Account.

Benefit Information for 24 Hour Travel Accident Insurance

Who is covered?

This insurance is provided automatically to Cardholders and your Immediate Family Members. Immediate Family Member means Your or Your Spouse's or Domestic Partner's children, including adopted children or stepchildren; legal guardians or wards; siblings or siblings-in-law; parents or parents-in-law; grandparents or grandchildren; aunts or uncles; nieces or nephews.

What is the 24 Hour Travel Accident benefit and what is covered?

If You charge Scheduled Airline costs (less any redeemable frequent flyer miles, points, coupons or certificates, or other types of redeemable rewards) to Your Account, the Company will provide Accidental Death, Dismemberment and Loss of Speech, Sight, and Hearing Benefits to an Insured Person on a twenty-four (24) hour basis. Twenty-four (24) hour coverage is activated when travel begins on the departure date printed on the Scheduled Airline ticket and ends on the return date printed on the Scheduled Airline ticket. For Scheduled Air Covered Trips more than thirty (30) days in length, coverage remains in effect until 12:01 a.m. on the thirty-first (31st) day of the Covered Trip and then terminates. The insurance will be reactivated only for Your return trip while an Insured Person is:

- 1) on a Scheduled Airline; or
- 2) riding as a passenger in, entering or exiting any Conveyance licensed to carry the public for hire or any Courtesy Transportation provided without a specific charge and while traveling to or from the airport:
 - a) immediately preceding the departure of the Scheduled Airline on which You have purchased passage; or
 - b) immediately following the arrival of the Scheduled Airline on which the Insured Person was a passenger; or
- 3) at the airport at the beginning or end of the Scheduled Air Covered Trip

Coverage shall also be provided when free flights have been awarded from frequent flier or rewards programs provided that all of the miles or rewards points were accumulated from a rewards program sponsored by Chase Bank USA, N.A. and/or its affiliates.

Scheduled Aircraft means an aircraft owned or operated by a Scheduled Airline. Scheduled Airline means an airline which is either: 1) registered and certified by the Government of the United States of America to carry passengers on a regularly scheduled basis; or 2) registered and certified by any other governmental authority with competent jurisdiction to carry passengers on a regularly scheduled basis.

Information applicable to both Common Carrier Travel Accident Insurance and 24 Hour Travel Accident Insurance

Disappearance: If, due to an Accident, You have not been found within one (1) year of the disappearance, stranding, sinking, or wrecking of any Conveyance in which You were an occupant at the time of the Accident, then it will be assumed You have suffered Loss of Life while insured under the policy.

Exposure: If, due to an Accident, You are unavoidably exposed to the elements and as a result of such exposure suffers a Covered Loss as described above, the Company will pay the benefit shown.

Loss must occur within one (1) year after the Accident.

Do I need to notify anyone that I've booked a fare, to obtain this insurance?

It is not necessary for You to notify Chase Bank USA, N.A. and/or its affiliates, the Plan Administrator, or the Company when tickets are purchased.

If I charge multiple tickets for myself and Immediate Family Members does the Common Carrier Travel Accident Benefit and the 24 Hour Travel Accident Benefit apply per person?

Yes. Each traveler is eligible to receive the primary Cardholder benefit amount, subject to the Aggregate Limit of Insurance.

Is an Immediate Family Member Covered if the Primary Cardholder is not traveling with them?

Yes. As long as the primary Cardholder has charged some portion of a fare, for an Immediate Family Member (less any redeemable frequent flyer miles, points, coupons or certificates, or other types of redeemable rewards) to their Account (subject to the terms and conditions of this description of coverage), the Company will pay the corresponding benefit regardless of whether the primary Cardholder is traveling with such Insured Person.

How much insurance is provided?

The Loss of Life Benefit Amount is per Insured Person up to the Aggregate Limit of Insurance.

Common Carrier Loss of Life Benefit Amount	Five Hundred Thousand ($500,000.00) Dollars
24 Hour Loss of Life Benefit Amount	One Hundred Thousand ($100,000.00) Dollars

The following are losses insured and the corresponding Benefit Amount expressed as a percentage of the Loss of Life Benefit Amount:

Covered Loss Due to an Accident	(Percentage of Loss of Life Benefit Amount)
Loss of Speech and Loss of Hearing	100%
Loss of Speech and one of Loss of Hand, Loss of Foot, or Loss of Sight	100%
Loss of Hearing and one of Loss of Hand, Loss of Foot, or Loss of Sight of One Eye	100%
Loss of Hands (Both), Loss of Feet (Both), Loss of Sight or a combination of any two of Loss of Hand, Loss of Foot, or Loss of Sight of One Eye	100%
Loss of Hand, Loss of Foot, or Loss of Sight of One Eye (any one of each)	50%
Loss of Speech or Loss of Hearing	50%
Loss of Thumb and Index Finger of the same hand	25%

In the event of a loss are both the Common Carrier Travel Accident Benefit Amount and the 24 Hour Travel Accident Benefit Amount payable?

No. If, subject to all the terms and conditions, the Insured Person suffers multiple covered losses as the result of one (1) Accident, then the Company will only pay the single largest Benefit Amount applicable to all such covered losses.

What is the Aggregate Limit of Insurance?

If more than one Insured Person insured under the same Account suffers a loss in the same Accident, the Company will not pay more than two (2) times the applicable Benefit Amount (the Aggregate Limit of Insurance). If an Accident results in Benefit Amounts becoming payable, which when totaled, exceed two (2) times the applicable Benefit Amount, then the Aggregate Limit of Insurance will be divided proportionally among the Insured Persons, based on each applicable Benefit Amount.

What is not covered?

Accidental Death & Dismemberment Exclusions: This insurance does not apply to any Accident, Accidental Bodily Injury or loss caused by or resulting from, directly or indirectly:

- the Insured Person entering, or exiting any aircraft while acting or training as a pilot or crew member. This exclusion does not apply to passengers who temporarily perform pilot or crew functions in a life-threatening emergency
- the Insured Person's emotional trauma, mental or physical illness, disease, pregnancy, childbirth or miscarriage, bacterial or viral infection, bodily malfunctions or medical or surgical treatment or diagnosis thereof. - the Insured Person participating in any professional sporting activity for which the Insured Person received a salary or prize money
- the Insured Person traveling or flying on any aircraft engaged in flight on a rocket propelled or rocket launched aircraft
- the Insured Person's suicide, attempted suicide or intentionally self-inflicted injury
- when: 1) the United States of America has imposed any trade or economic sanctions prohibiting insurance of any Accident, Accidental Bodily Injury or loss; or 2) there is any other legal prohibition against providing insurance for any Accident, Accidental bodily injury or loss
- a declared or undeclared War

What is the cost for this insurance?

This insurance plan is provided at no cost to eligible Cardholders. Chase Bank USA, N.A. and/or its affiliates pays the full cost of the insurance.

When does my coverage become effective and when does it terminate?

Your insurance becomes effective on the latest of: 1) The date on which You first meet the eligibility criteria as an Insured Person; or 2) the date for which the premium for your insurance is paid by Chase Bank USA, N.A. and/or its affiliates. Insurance for You automatically terminates on the earliest of: 1) the termination date of the policy; 2) the expiration of the period for which required premium has been paid for You; 3) the date on which You no longer meet the eligibility criteria as an Insured Person; or 4) the date on which the Company pays out 100% of the Loss of Life Benefit Amount. Also covered while Your insurance is in effect are your Immediate Family Members, as Insured Persons, for the benefits described in this description of coverage.

Claim Information

Specific questions, beneficiary designations, and request for claims forms may be submitted to the Plan Administrator at the following address:

Plan Administrator
Card Benefit Services
P.O. Box 72034
Richmond, VA 23255

What types of documentation may be requested when a claim is submitted?

Some of the documentation that may be requested by the Company includes but is not limited to:

- a completed claim form
- a copy of the travel itinerary
- a police report confirming the claimed Accident
- a copy of the credit card statement that shows the charge for the Common Carrier or Scheduled Airline fare
- a copy of the death certificate

Notice of Claim

Written Claim Notice must be given within twenty (20) days after the occurrence or commencement of any loss covered by this policy or as soon as reasonably possible. Notice must include enough information to identify the Insured Person and Chase Bank USA, N.A. and/or its affiliates. Failure to give Claim Notice within twenty (20) days will not invalidate or reduce any otherwise valid claim if notice is given as soon as reasonably possible.

Claim Forms

When the Company receives notice of a claim, the Company will send the Insured Person or the Insured Person's designee, within fifteen (15) days, forms for giving Proof of Loss to the Company. If the Insured Person or the Insured Person's designee does not receive the forms, then the Insured Person or the Insured Person's designee should send the Company a written description of the loss. This written description should include information detailing the occurrence, type and extent of the loss for which the claim is made.

Proof of Loss

Complete Proof of Loss must be given to the Company within ninety (90) days after the date of loss, or as soon as reasonably possible. Failure to give complete Proof of Loss within these time frames will not invalidate or reduce any otherwise valid claim if notice is given as soon as reasonably possible, and in no event later than one (1) year after the deadline to submit complete Proof of Loss, except in cases where the claimant lacks legal capacity.

Time of Payment of Claims

The Company will pay claims for all losses covered under the policy within sixty (60) days after the Company receives complete Proof of Loss if the Insured Person, Chase Bank USA, N.A. and/or its affiliates and beneficiary, where applicable, have complied with all the terms of the policy.

Payment of Claims and Beneficiary

All benefits except for Loss of Life are paid to You. Loss of Life benefits are paid to the beneficiary at the time of death. If the Insured Person has not chosen a beneficiary or if there is no beneficiary alive when the Insured Person dies, then the Company will pay the benefit to the Insured Person's survivors in the following order: 1) Your Spouse or Domestic Partner; 2) Your child(ren); 3) Your parents; 4) Your brothers and sisters; and 5) Your estate. You have the right to name a beneficiary. Beneficiary designations must be submitted in writing to the Plan Administrator. If any beneficiary has not reached the legal age of majority, then the Company will pay such beneficiary's legal guardian.

Travel and Emergency Assistance Services

What are Travel and Emergency Assistance Services?

Help when you don't know where to turn. Travel and Emergency Assistance provides a wide range of emergency services available twenty-four (24) hours a day, three hundred and sixty-five (365) days a year.

The Benefit Administrator will make every reasonable effort to respond when you have an emergency—even if you need assistance beyond the services listed here. Please understand that, due to occasional problems such as distance, location, or time, neither the Benefit Administrator nor its service providers can be responsible for the availability, use, cost, or results of any medical, legal, transportation, or other service.

Please note: Travel and Emergency Assistance Services provide assistance and referral only. You are responsible for the cost of any actual medical, legal, transportation, cash advance, or other services or goods provided.

Who is eligible?

You, a person to whom a United States (U.S.) credit card has been issued ("Cardholder"), your spouse, and your children (provided the children are dependents under 22 years old) may all take advantage of these special emergency services.

How do I get these services?

They're as close as the nearest phone. You simply call the Benefit Administrator any hour of the day or night.

Is there a charge for these services?

No. Travel and Emergency Assistance Services are available to eligible Cardholders at no additional charge. Cardholders are responsible for the cost of any actual medical, legal, transportation, cash advance, or other services or goods provided, as indicated below.

What are the specific services and what do they provide?

Travel and Emergency Assistance Services will put you in touch with the appropriate emergency services should the need arise. Here are some of the ways the Benefit Administrator can help:

- Emergency Message Service can record and relay emergency messages for travelers, immediate family members, or business associates. Note: the Benefit Administrator will use reasonable efforts to relay emergency messages in accordance with benefit guidelines and limitations, but cannot take responsibility for the failure to transmit any message successfully.
- Medical Referral Assistance provides medical referral, monitoring, and follow-up. The Benefit Administrator can give you names of English-speaking doctors, dentists, and hospitals; assign a doctor to consult by phone with local medical personnel, keep in contact with your family, and provide continuing liaison; and help you arrange medical payments from your personal account. Note: All costs are your responsibility.

- Legal Referral Assistance can arrange contact with English-speaking attorneys and with U.S. embassies or consulates if you're detained by local authorities, have a car accident, or need legal assistance. In addition, the Benefit Administrator can coordinate bail payment from your personal account. The Benefit Administrator can also follow up to make sure bail has been properly handled. Note: All costs are your responsibility.
- Emergency Transportation Assistance can help you make all the necessary arrangements for emergency transportation home or to the nearest medical facility. This even includes arranging to bring your young children home and helping you stay in contact with family members or employers. In the case of a death, the Benefit Administrator can make arrangements for returning the remains of the deceased home. Note: All costs are your responsibility.
- Emergency Ticket Replacement helps you with the carrier's lost ticket reimbursement procedures if you should lose your ticket and can arrange delivery of a replacement ticket to you. Note: All costs are your responsibility.
- Lost Luggage Locator Service can help you through the common carrier's claim procedures or can arrange shipment of replacement items if an airline or common carrier loses your checked luggage. The Benefit Administrator can also arrange a cash advance with your issuing bank. However, you are responsible for the cost of any replacement items and shipping costs.
- Emergency Translation Service provides telephone assistance in all major languages and helps find local interpreters, if available, when you need more extensive assistance. Note: All costs are your responsibility.
- Prescription Assistance and Valuable Document Delivery Arrangements can help you get prescriptions filled or replaced, subject to local laws, and can even arrange pickup and delivery of prescriptions filled for you at a pharmacy near your location. It can also help transport critical documents which you may have left at home or elsewhere. Note: All costs are your responsibility.
- Pre-Trip Assistance can give you information on your destination before you leave—information such as ATM locations, currency exchange rates, weather reports, health precautions, immunizations, and required passport visas.

Additional Provisions for Travel and Emergency Assistance

Services: The benefit described in this Guide to Benefit will not apply to Cardholders whose accounts have been suspended or canceled. The terms and conditions contained in this Guide to Benefit may be modified by subsequent endorsements. Modifications to the terms and conditions may be provided via additional Guide to Benefits mailings, statement inserts, statement messages, or email or other secure portal messaging vehicles. Allianz Global Assistance ("Benefit Administrator") is solely responsible for provision of the Travel and Emergency Assistance benefit.

FORM #VTEA (04/10)

Roadside Dispatch

For roadside assistance, call 1-800-VISA-TOW (1-800-847-2869)

What is Roadside Dispatch?

Roadside Dispatch® is a roadside assistance program arranged by Visa that you pay for only when you use it. The program is provided expressly for you a named owner on your credit card account, a "Cardholder", and it gives you security and convenience wherever your travels take you.

No membership required or pre-enrollment is required. No annual dues. No limit on usage.

For $59.95 per service call, the program provides:

- Towing – Up to 5 miles included¹
- Tire Changing – must have good, inflated spare
- Jump Starting – battery boost
- Lockout Service³ (no key replacement)
- Fuel Delivery – up to 5 gallons (cost of fuel not included)
- Winching² (within 100 feet of paved or county maintained road only)

What happens when I call Roadside Dispatch?

After discussing your location and the nature of problem, the dispatcher will remain on the phone with you while arranging for a local service provider to come to your assistance. (Please note: if you feel that your location is not safe, you will be advised to hang up and dial 911. If you are not able to dial 911, a non-emergency police number in your area will be called and the dispatcher will remain on the phone with you at your request until the police arrive.)

With Roadside Dispatch, you will not have to search for the name of a local service provider, and you may even save money because Roadside Dispatch rates are pre-negotiated with local service providers. All fees are conveniently billed to your account.

Roadside assistance, twenty-four (24) hours a day, seven (7) days a week has never been easier. No membership or pre-enrollment is required. Just call toll free: 1-800-VISA-TOW (1-800-847-2869)

¹ Rates apply to vehicles up to one ton gross vehicle weight only. Customers must pay service provider for mileage over 5 miles. A secondary unit being towed behind is not included but can be accommodated for an additional fee.

² Additional fees may apply for winching services under certain circumstances.

³ Customers must have a valid credit card available in order to initiate and charge the $59.95 on-demand service fee prior to a dispatch. If a valid credit card is not available, the customer may be denied service.

Note: Service providers supplying emergency roadside assistance and towing are independent contractors and are solely liable for their services. Neither Visa nor Chase shall have any responsibility or liability in connection with the rendering of the service. Emergency roadside assistance and towing may not be available in areas not regularly traveled, nor in other “off road” areas not accessible by ordinary towing vehicles. Weather conditions, time of day, and availability of service may affect assistance responses. Expectations for dispatch are set with the customer on every call, and an expected estimated time of arrival is provided to the customer regardless of their location; however, neither Visa nor Chase provides any assurances as to the ability of the service provider to meet such estimates. You are responsible for any roadside assistance or towing charges incurred by facilities responding to your request even if you are not with your vehicle or your vehicle is gone upon their arrival. Services provided by United States Auto Club, Motoring Division, Inc. This program may be discontinued at any time without prior notice. Program void where prohibited.
